

MY FAVORITE THINGS

Celebrity manicurist Deborah Lippman, whose polish line is called the Lippmann Collection

My acupuncturist is Abdi Assadi, on W. 20th St. Whenever I'm feeling really out of sorts, he gets me emotionally and physically centered. I get a lot of back problems from doing nails, so he'll work on that.

"Meurice, at University Place, is a fabulous dry cleaner. If you have handbags or clothing that you care about, send them there. Things come out like new.

"I love the glasses at Robert Marc on Madison Ave. They have beautiful frames, from the hippest thing you could want to classic looks. And the people there really know how to fit glasses. It wasn't until I went there that I got a pair that actually fit my face."
